

Mississippi Women for Agriculture-Dianne Evans Memorial Scholarship

Scholarship Description

In keeping with the mission “to empower women in agriculture through education, involvement, and action,” the Mississippi Women for Agriculture organization (MWA), along with the family of Dianne Evans, offers a one-time $500 scholarship for women who are full time students. Students entering their junior or senior year in college, and graduate students are invited to apply. Applicants must demonstrate how the degree they are seeking relates to agriculture. They must be female residents of Mississippi who are enrolled full time, and able to demonstrate need for a scholarship. Full time is 12 hours of coursework.

Scholarship applicants must submit the following:

1. Proof of residence in Mississippi.
2. Official college transcript showing college work completed to date, and GPA, which must be 2.5 or above.
3. Tuition invoice and class schedule to verify enrollment in university course work.
4. Statement (500 words or less) about personal career goals for working in agriculture, how this scholarship will support academic pursuits, and why the scholarship is needed.
5. Two (2) letters of recommendation verifying why applicant fits criteria.
6. Application form with items listed above by annual deadline February 22, 2019.

One applicant will receive the scholarship each year at the annual spring meeting of Mississippi Women for Agriculture. All personal information will be kept confidential. The winner's name will be posted on the MWA website at least one week prior to the MWA Annual Meeting.

Applications will be judged on the following criteria:

- Desire to work in the field of agriculture. . . . 40 points
- Financial need. 30 points
- Academic record 20 points
- Extra-curricular activities. 10 points

The scholarship recipient will be invited to attend the MWA annual meeting where she will be recognized for her accomplishments, and asked to sign a release form for publishing photos.
